

Boadband over Power Lines is but another encroachment on the Amateur Radio Bands and could have an extremely detrimental effect on our abilities to communicate, most importantly in emergency situations. The FCC must act on this encroachment promptly and finally eliminate the threat.